

Sort 8 – Derivational

Adding –ion: predictable changes in consonants

Name _____

Base –de	-de > sion	Base –it	-it > ission
Explode	Explosion	Admit	Admission

Complete the following “rule”

When adding –ion to words that end in –de, drop the –de and add _____.

When adding –ion to words that end in –it, drop the _____ and add _____.

When adding the –ion ending you change the base word from a verb to a _____.

What do you think are the base words for the following using the rule?

-ion form of word	Base Word
Commission
Emission
Remission
Transmission

Applying Meaning- fill in the correct spelling word to complete the sentence.

- _____ 1. To play hockey or soccer was a difficult ____ for the boy.
- _____ 2. The magician worked hard to ____ the audience.
- _____ 3. I will ____ you to go on the field trip if your parent calls me immediately.
- _____ 4. The Romans would ____ villages and take control.
- _____ 5. Be careful that paint can could ____ in the fire!
- _____ 6. I will ____ the misspelling of your name and correct it later.
- _____ 7. You must ____ a letter of recommendation along with your application.
- _____ 8. You must ____ the pizza into equal portions for everyone.
- _____ 9. Lucky for the rock climber there was a ____ in the rock when he reached up to find a place to grab on.
- _____ 10. I must ____ that I was wrong and you were right.

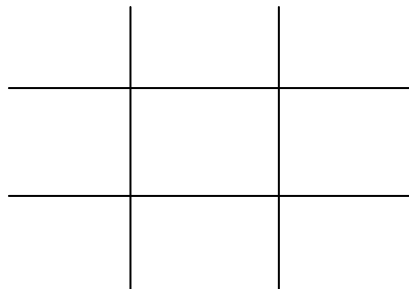

Play a game of spelling tic tac toe with a partner.

X = _____ (name)

O = _____ (name)

Using your cut up spelling words in a baggie, randomly select words to spell. Record the word below and if it is spelled correctly you can place your corresponding letter (x,o) on the board.

Words spelled by X	Words spelled by O

Play a game of spelling tic tac toe with a partner.

X = _____ (name)

O = _____ (name)

Using your cut up spelling words in a baggie, randomly select words to spell. Record the word below and if it is spelled correctly you can place your corresponding letter (x,o) on the board.

Words spelled by X	Words spelled by O

